

Chris Scherzer
3385 Twp. Rd 124
Cardington, OH 43315
Scherzer.8@buckeyemail.osu.edu
937-594-3900

OBJECTIVE To obtain an internship or job in the field of engineering.

EDUCATION Cardington-Lincoln High School, Cardington, Ohio
2009-2013 GPA: 4.0. Honors Classes

2013 to 2017 The Ohio State University: Architecture and Engineering. May 2017

EMPLOYMENT Slacks and Singing Springs, Cardington, OH
Nursery Hand/Landscaper
June 2010 Gale Slack, Supervisor
to present -Planted trees, spread mulch, potted plants, helped customers, and performed many types of landscaping work.

ACTIVITIES & HONORS Genius Garage Internship: January 2014 to present
Learning how to build and race a professional Indy car.
Tasks included racing at Indianapolis, display the car around Columbus, talk to businesses for sponsorship, promoting the car, and speaking with mentors in various industries.
Green Engineering Scholars Program: Fall 2013 to present
OSU learning community based on service, co-curricular experiences, and applying them to energy efficient practices.
Ohio State Car Club: Fall 2013 to present
General member and leadership role
FFA: 4 years
Events attended: National Convention, State FFA Camp, State Convention, Made For Excellence
Awards: State Degree
NHS: 2 years- Member

SKILLS

- Perfectionist: honest, hardworking, and dependable.
- Focused on the highest quality of work
- Enjoy working with mechanical objects
- Welding, concrete, woodworking, and fabrication experience
- Experience with small and large engine work
- Proficient with computers and multiple programs
- Quick and eager learner, will take criticism constructively

HOBBIES Driving and working on cars, going to races, skateboarding, riding quads, rock climbing, woodworking, and making improvements to objects in my environment.

