

WILLIAM J. CONSER

34 South Erie Street Apartment #308
Toledo, OH 43604
(520) 221-0380
william.conser@utoledo.edu

OBJECTIVE: To develop experience and a physical connection between undergraduate studies major and graduate studies to be competitive in the aeronautical manufacturing industry.

EDUCATION:

Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University (Prescott, Arizona)

Bachelor of Science in Aeronautical Studies

- Minor in Aviation Safety/Aircraft Accident Investigation

- Private Rotary Wing License (80+ hours)

August 2007 - May 2010

Grade Point Average: 3.5

Engineers Basic Officer Course (Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri)

August 2010 – February 2011

Engineers Captains Career Course (Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri)

July 2013 – January 2014

University of Toledo (Toledo, Ohio)

Masters of Science in Engineering

August 2017 – Present

HONORS & EXPERIENCE

Cum laude, Deans List (Fall '07, Spring '09), Honor Roll (Spring '08, Fall '08/'09)

Awarded the Steel Order of the de Fleury Medal

Union Pacific Railroad – Contractor (Tucson, Arizona)

May 2008/09 – August 2008/09

Heavy Equipment Operator/Rail Maintenance Worker

- Responsible for the safe handling and maintenance of many types of equipment

- Entrusted to transport/operate equipment in remote areas with no supervision

Engineer Corps – United States Army – (Various Locations)

May 2010 – Present

Engineer Officer – Captain

- Lead and manage elements of Engineer Soldiers from 30 to 110 men in size in austere environments for lengthy amounts of time

- Commended for revolutionizing UAV integration into counter IED

operations

Genius Garage – Aerospace and Racing Teams

- Assisted in the development of Aeronautical and automotive systems.

SPECIAL SKILLS & INTERESTS

- Strong interests in woodworking, construction, and manufacturing
- Enjoy seeing physical results of labor and dedication
- Understanding practical application of knowledge as it pertains to engineering